

CAREERS OPEN DAY

Saturday 10 September
Fraser's Kings Park
10am - 1pm

Looking to take the next step in your hospitality career?
Looking to re-enter the workforce?
Not sure where to start?

Then this Careers Open
Day is for you!

Come and talk to our representatives from the Fraser's Group of Restaurants

Learn while you earn - The Fraser's Group is now offering staff the ability to receive a formal qualification and to work in award winning restaurants and venues across Perth.

Fraser's Function Centre is working in conjunction with West Coast Institute of Training to provide traineeships and skill training for all staff. The Group is also participating in the AHA Training, Service with a Smile Program in preparation for CHOGM.

We believe that expert skills can be trained, we want people with a great attitude, who want to work and learn from some of the best there is in Perth.

There are an array of opportunities throughout the Group including Restaurant and Function Wait Staff, Chef's, Cooks, apprentices, Kiosk/Café customer service staff, Kitchen Hands, Head Steward, Supervisors, Sales Consultants.

Hospitality & Flexibility- We are looking for casual staff, all ages. As well as those completing tertiary studies we also want to attract mature-aged employees, stay at home parents and those wanting to get back into the workforce with as little as 1 shift per week or more. Flexible hours and days throughout the week are available.

"I am an example that you are never too old to change your direction in life."

Rachel McSweeney, 45yr old mother of three.

Rachel commenced a hospitality traineeship within Fraser's Function Centre. She thanks her exposure on Network 10's reality cooking competition for helping push her in a new direction.

CHOGM brings exciting new job opportunities

CHOGM will not only bring Commonwealth Leaders to Perth to discuss some of the issues facing the Commonwealth, it will also provide the perfect opportunity for individuals to gain great experience. Employees will also get the unique opportunity to be a part of an international event.

"With CHOGM and our busy period fast approaching we are looking to expand our teams across the Group" says Fraser's Business Development Manager, Arnya Tait. "It is an exciting time to get into the hospitality industry" states Ms Tait.

With many new job opportunities on offer, Fraser's Restaurant Group is holding a Careers Open Day, Saturday 10 September from 10am-1pm at the newly refurbished Fraser's, Kings Park.

The free Open Day is a great chance for all job seekers; from students completing tertiary studies to the more mature-aged employees, stay at home parents and those wanting to get back into the workforce.

West Coast Institute of Training is currently working with Fraser's Function Centre to provide Traineeships and Skill Training for employees. The Group is also embracing the Australian Hotels Association (AHA) customer service training recently launched in preparation of CHOGM.

The Service with a Smile Program will contribute significantly to the state's customer service standards. Fraser's Group is now in the position to offer employees the ability to receive a formal qualification and work in award winning venues.

"We believe that expert skills can be trained, we want people with a great attitude, who want to work and learn from some of the best there is in Perth" says Ms Tait.

There is an array of opportunities throughout the Group including Restaurant and Function Wait Staff, Chef's, Cooks, apprentices, Kiosk/Café customer service staff, Kitchen Hands, Head Steward, Supervisors and Sales Consultants.

Fraser's Restaurant Group includes Fraser's, Kings Park; The Old Brewery, Perth; Bluewater, Applecross; Botanical Café, Kings Park & Indiana, Cottesloe.
